

Assistance with finding and maintaining housing - free for you!

Are you struggling to find stable housing? We are here to help!

Our Community Support Program helps Medi-Cal recipients, including refugees and people with health issues, find, secure, and maintain housing.

How We Help:

Housing transition services - We assist at every stage: searching, applying, and signing leases.

Deposit and financial assistance - We cover the security deposit, first and last month's rent, as well as utility connection fees.

Housing stability support – We help tenants maintain stable housing and work with landlords to prevent eviction.

Who Can Participate?

People who are homeless or at risk of homelessness

People with health issues who need stable housing

People recently released from incarceration (e.g., hospital discharge, prison release, mental health facility discharge, homeless shelter, or rehabilitation center).

What we expect from landlords:

Sianed lease agreement (subject to landlord's approval of tenant application).

W9 form for payment processing.

Flexibility when working with tenants who may face language barriers or have special needs.

Why partner with us?

Building long-term, positive relationships between landlords and tenants

Ongoing support for both landlords and tenants throughout the process.

Culturally and linguistically adapted services for refugees and marginalized communities.
